

43.2 million refugees and displaced people are on the run in the world today. From the makeshift camps in the Democratic Republic of the Congo to the slums of Colombia, TRANSIT presents stories of everyday life and the challenges displaced people and refugees meet every day, no matter in which country or which continent they find themselves. Published to coincide with a major exhibition at the Nobel Peace Center, Oslo, 2011, and then to tour internationally. Espen Rasmussen was recognized in 2008 by Photo District News (USA) as one of the most promising young photographers in the world.
